Vol: XLV Number VI

JUNE 2007

PRESIDENT Message
Lcdr. Peter C. Meyer

Hello members, the Armed Forces Ball was very successful again. This is our May meeting and very few of MOAA membership attended. Next year let's pull together and show up in force. This function is every May and noted in the directory and the newsletter throughout the year. Let's get tighter and have some fun next year at the Armed Forces Ball.

We may have volunteer for 2nd VP (arrangements) to replace Martina Boe for the coming year. Our speaker for August is going speak about the decline in national and local chapter membership. This will be very interesting, since most military organizations like ours has been declining in membership. Our goal this year is to retain the fine members enrolled and future members. Recruiting for MOAA is everyone's responsibility. I know there are many folks who like to join but really do not know about us yet.

I hope to see you all at the June luncheon, it will be fun time and we'll be looking for members to join the board. Offices are open to everyone.

Special thanks to Eugene Tulich for attending many of the Memorial Day's Affairs.

DONATIONS FOR MOAA SCHOLARSHIP FUND

AUX Nancy L. Owens. In memory of LtCol Paul V. Owens USAF (RET) died 31 Dec, 2005.

CPT and Mrs. William H. Taylor.

LCDR Vernon G. Gillette

Many thanks to the members above for donating their money our deserving Cadets.

Let's not forget about Veterans from World Wars, Korea, Vet-Nam, Desert Storm
 And especially the young men returning today.

NEWS FROM NATIONAL

As a MOAA member, you'll have access to expert benefits information advice, money-saving products and services, plus a team of legislative professionals fighting for your rights. You also will have the opportunity to network and make connections to aid your personal and professional life.

The following are only a few items that our more than 360,000 members find beneficial.

Insurance

MOAA offers its members some of the very best insurance plans available, including TRICARE insurance supplements and outstanding buys in term life insurance.

Join MOAA! Financial Services

As a MOAA member, you'll have access to competitive credit cards and special rates on CDs and money market accounts. Plus special perks for MOAA members, such as our new online store, the MOAA Exchange.

Legislative Action

The Government Relations Department has five full-time lobbyists who represent the interests of the military community (active duty, retired, guard/reserve, family members, and survivors - both officer and enlisted) through testimony before Congress and personal contact with elected officials, congressional staffers, and representatives of the Department of Defense and other executive branch agencies.

Employment Assistance

MOAA's acclaimed Officer Placement Service (TOPS) provides assistance to members in career transition. TOPS offers resume advice, job listings, background information on more than one million companies, a career fair, and a worldwide network of fellow MOAA members who are already working in industries you are targeting. The popular booklet, Marketing Yourself for a Second Career, is free to members.

Educational Assistance Program

MOAA's Scholarship Fund offers competitive interest-free loans for undergraduate study to unmarried dependent children of active, reserve, retired, or deceased members of the uniformed services. Join MOAA!

Retirement Advice and Assistance

MOAA Benefits Information experts provide thousands of members each year with assistance and advice relating to military benefits and entitlements, Social Security, and a wide range of other entitlements. Easy-to-understand booklets and fact sheets (available in the Publications section) on these subjects are available to members, including SBP Made Easy, Help Your Survivors - Now!, Reserve Retirement Benefits, Planning for Military Retirement, and more. Join MOAA!

Military Officer and Today's Officer magazines

MOAA's award-winning monthly magazines offer diverse feature articles and reports on legislation, financial issues, second-career opportunities, current military affairs, military history, travel, and health/fitness.

Chapter Activities

More than 420 autonomous, MOAA-affiliated chapters are chartered in the United States and abroad. Chapters offer local opportunities for camaraderie, job networking, and organized legislative action on local, state, and national levels. Join MOAA!

Membership

You do not have to be retired to join MOAA! All active duty, retired, National Guard, Reserve, former commissioned officers, and warrant officers of the uniformed services - Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, Public Health Service, and National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration - are eligible for membership.

Six out of ten retired officers belong to MOAA, as well as more than 30,000 active duty officers.

Auxiliary memberships are available for surviving spouses of deceased officers.
